Lagunen ("The Lagoon") is a cozy waterfront restaurant with roots from the local boating life. Our menu combines the Danish and the French cuisine and we put a virtue in preparing the meals entirely from scratch using the best fresh raw materials of the season. Enjoy a homemade quality meal in the relaxed atmosphere of our restaurant – or follow the harbor life from our covered terrace. Combine your visit in Lagunen with a swim from the child-friendly sandy beach or a walk in the marsh of Nivå Bay with a unique birdlife. Read about menu and concert program on www.restaurantlagunen.dk.

DISCOVER HUMLEBÆK

THE LIVING TOWN OF CULTURE

The town is brimming with first-class art and cultural experiences and many specialty shops, cafés and restaurants. Krogerup Farm Store and Louisiana – Museum of Modern Art – are always worth a visit. Humlebæk's long coastline with harbours, beaches and cultural environments offer plenty of opportunities for fun, activities and relaxation.

DISCOVER NIVÅ

THE FAMILY TOWN FOR ACTIVE FAMILIES

Nivå lies like a unique green and natural pearl on the North Sealand coastline, surrounded by forest, moss, river, beach and clay pit lakes. Nivå's nature and history are strongly linked to its brickwork production. Visit the unique Ring Oven. Admire Nivaagaard's Art Collection and enjoy the giant rhododendron garden. Discover the rich bird life in the unique protected salt marshes towards the Sound. The water sport area by the harbour and beach park offers challenging fun for young and old alike. Nivå Harbour offers great opportunities to enjoy a steaming cup of coffee, a beer or delicious meal as you soak up the harbour atmosphere.

Humlebæk

Humlebæk Walking Route

Follow the blue path on the map, and see what Humlebæk has to offer. Already at the train station, you will be greeted with art in the form of renowned artist Per Kirkeby's sculpture in red brick. Walk from Humlebæk train station to Louisiana Museum of Modern Art and explore its exhibitions of world-class art. Make a stop at the marina for a cup of coffee or a meal in the cozy surroundings while you enjoy the view of the Øresund strait. The route will take you past the beautiful green landscape and the farmland of Krogerup.

The route is 3.5 kilometers long and child-friendly.

Nivå

Nivå Walking Route

Explore Nivå via the small streets and paths that only locals know. This walking route starts where you want it to start, by the train station, or where you parked the car. Follow the red route on the map, and after 6.5 kilometers, you have returned to your starting point. On the way, you will see traces of the town's long history of brick production, charming neighbourhoods, open landscapes by the sea rich in birdlife, the sandy beach close to great restaurants near the harbour, and the romantic garden surrounding the art museum, The Nivaagaard Collection.

The route is 6.5 kilometers long and child-friendly. A part of the route is on a dirt road that may be slippery after rain.
